Create- Motivate- Learn CreMoLe

Project funded with support from the European Commission
LLP Grundtvig Action

CreMoLe Project's Goal

Create
Motivate
Learn

The project aims to identify factors related to motivating adults' participation and persistence in Lifelong Learning processes.

Also, the project plans to compile a set of creative and critical thinking strategies to be used by adult educators to more successfully motivate adults to participate in Lifelong Learning processes.

Project's aims

- To improve teaching competences for adult-teachers/ tutors;
- To improve the content and delivery of adult education;
- To provide adult educators with a set of creative and critical thinking strategies to use in adult learning contexts;
- To improve the accessibility of learning opportunities for adults;
- To enhance the adults' motivation for lifelong learning;
- To provide trainers/ tutors the opportunity to share experiences and practices from the participating countries and to work together with European colleagues for improving adult participation in Lifelong Learning.

Deliverables and outcomes

Collection of best practices on how adults learn;

Collection of creative and critical thinking strategies that motivate adults to participate in Lifelong Learning;

Website for disseminating information and products (www.cremole.eu);

A Grundtvig training course to improve the availability and quality of European training courses available to adult educators.
